

MoralMonday

Oct14,2024

A.K.D.Dharmaraja Women's College Hosts Talk on Moral Values by Eminent Scholar Dr. S. Gandhi Durai

Rajapalayam, October14,2024

Dr. S. Gandhi Durai, Head of the Tamil Department at Thiagarajar College, Madurai, the chief guest of Moral Monday series of guest lectures, hosted by A.K.D. Dharma Raja Women's College, provided a thought-provoking address focused on life values and personal growth.

In his keynote speech, Dr. Durai captivated the audience with powerful insights on respect, responsibility, and women's empowerment. Through the inspiring stories of many women, he emphasised the importance of resilience and shared practical wisdom on discipline, goal-setting, and hard work as fundamental steps to personal and professional success. His words struck a chord with the young audience, motivating them to approach their goals with purpose and determination.

The program commenced with a warm welcome address by the college's Principal, Ms. S. Jamuna, followed by an introductory speech from Ms. J.A. Bal Nandini, HOD, Tamil. The event ended with a concluding remarks and a vote of thanks by Mr. G. Sankaranarayanan, Educational Consultant.

The Moral Monday program reflected A.K.D. Dharmaraja Women's College's commitment to holistic education, inspiring students to adopt values that will guide them in their academic and personal journeys.